

ADULT EXPANSION POPULATION

Who makes up the adult expansion group?

- Adults ages 19-64
- Non-pregnant adults

When does adult expansion go into effect?

- July 1, 2021.

What are the eligibility requirements?

- FPL at or below 138%
- Citizenship or alienage
- Residence
- Cooperation with child support
- Does not have or is not entitled to Medicare

Members may apply for expansion the same way members apply for eligibility today:

- Online at www.MySoonerCare.org
- Apply by phone by calling the SoonerCare Helpline 800-987-7767
- Fill out an English or Spanish application and mail it into the address on the application
- Apply through one of our agency partner facilities

What is covered?

See the comparison chart of benefits. The adult population will be under our SoonerCare Traditional Plan until joining an MCO.

What are the benefits?

Expansion adults will receive full-scope SoonerCare benefits.

- Individuals who may have previously only had SoonerPlan or Insure Oklahoma will have a richer benefit package.

Pharmacy & durable medical equipment benefits

- Six covered prescriptions per month.
- DME benefits cover items such as oxygen equipment and supplies, wheelchairs, walkers and hospital beds ordered by the medical home for use in the home.

Prior authorizations

- A prior authorization is required before SoonerCare will pay for some medical procedures or medications. The physician or specialist will ask SoonerCare to authorize the treatment. The member and provider will be notified about the final determination.

Cost-sharing and copays

- Cost-sharing copay caps are monthly.
- This means the out-of-pocket cost will be 5% of the household monthly income for copays.
